The process requires a specially ruled screen paper. A multi-colored screen, recied by very fine lines formed of dots or small particles, is employed. The screen is ruled with lines ployed. The screen is ruled with lines in these colors about 300 to the inch. This screen is placed in front and in close centact with an orthocromatic plate, which is then exposed in the camera to the subject to be photographed. The ordinary black and white negative is thus obtained in lines corresponding to the screen register. From this negative a positive is made in the ordinary way on glass or paper. If now the screen, or a similarly ruled one, be laid on the positive, and moved until the positive and screen are in register the picture comes up in original colors.

JUDGE TRUMBULL DEAD.

A Representative American Passes Peacefully Away.

CHICAGO, June 25. - Ex-United States Senator Lyman Trumbull died at 3 o'clock this morning at his house in this city. He had been ill a long time, but rallied at intervals, causing hope that he might eventually recover His last relapse, however, settled his fate in the mind of his physician, and the end has been expected daily for the past week.

the past week.

Judge Trumbull was born at Colchester, New London county, Conn., in 1813. A career like that of Lyman Trumbull's comes to but few men. For more than sixty years his life hus been a life of censiless activity and is not hyperbole to say that in all. For more than sixty years his life has been a life of ceas-less activity and it is not hyperbole to say that in all these years his work has belonged to the nation. He has been a school teacher, lawyer and judge. He has played his part in politics—on the stump, in the halls of congress, in the deliberations of varities and as a non-combatant councillor. In public life he has been one of those rare men who lend and teach political parties, yet are never bound by tradition or association to follow their party into its divergence from the lines laid down by their consciences. In the beginning he was an anti-stavery Democrat. As a Republican he fought side by side with the immortal Lincoln and the men who founded the Republican party of to-day. Then his party, as he thought, departed from its true mission and followed a line his conscience would not endorse. Resolutely he turned his back on his former associates and became a Democrat. In later years he parted company with that party. He took such ground against the extension of power of the United States courts that he became the hope of the Popullist and in a sense their counsellor. And all the time men of both parties respected him. His last appearance in a court room was made as counsel for the American Railway union officers before the supreme court, at Washington. is not commendable. The Bible says, is not commendable. The Bible says, "By their fruits ye shall know them."

The Republicans have claimed to be the only true friends of sliver, but the fruit of the Republican national convention at St. Louis is golden. The Democratic party has shown its faith by its works and has elected a free sliver majority to the national convention. I am always willing to concede that a man who disagrees with me, may honestly do so. It would not be just for me to say, that the sliver Republicans are dishonest and selfish in their purpose, when they ask me to st endeavor to secure the nomination of Mr. Teller by the Democratic party.

Only once since then has he appearance gave added point to the claims of the Populists upon him. It was at a mass meeting in Central Music hall, where he spoke at length upon the causes of discontent among the industrial classes. He spoke of the encroachments of the federal courts upon the constitutional rights of the people, and emphasized the point that deliverance from the oppression of privileged monopolies could only be had through the ballot.

Judge Trumbuil was twice married.

DENVER, June 25.-The state silver convention was called to order at 11:15 a.m. by I. N. Stevens, a member of the national silver committee

There were 710 delegates. Prayer was ofered by Rev. Thomas Uzzeil, who asked the blessing "on this convention, on the coming silver convention at St. Louis and especially on the convention that is to meet at Chicago," Stevens congratulated the counties on sending to Denver delegates to a meeting "at which there was no pie counter in sight." He expressed his hope that the Chicago convention would nominate a

The mention of Teller set the convention wild, and the enthusiasm continued over the names of Sinley, Bland, Blackburn, Morgan and the southern free silver senators.

The convention selected H. A. W. Tabor temporary chairman.

After appointing committees, the convention took recess until 2 o'clock.

THREE CHEERS FOR TELLER.

THREE CHEERS FOR TELLER.

The convention adjourned with three cheers for Teller after adopting the following platform:
First—That the paramount issue at this time in the United States is indisputably the money question. It is between the gold standard, gold bonds and bank currency on the one side, and the bimetallic standard, no bonds and government currency on the other.

Second—That on this issue we declare ourselves to be in favor of a distinct American financial system. We are unalterably opposed to the single gold standard and demand immediate return to the constitutional standard of gold and silver by the restoration by the government independently of any foreign power of the unrestricted coinage of both gold and silver into standard money, at the ratio of 15 to 1, and upon terms of exact equality as they existed prior to 1873; that silver coin be a full legal tender equally with gold for all debts and dues, private and public.

Third—That to our senior senator and fellow citizen, the Hon. Henry M. Teller, we accord all honor and admiration for his personal worth and high character and speak of him as thousands of us have known him to be from his early vigorous manhood to his present ripened years, Throughout his long official life he has always been

FOUND AT THE POST OF DUTY,

FOUND AT THE POST OF DUTY, doing battle for the masses of the people. Especially do we honor him and his associate delegates for their heroic action in following their convictions in abandoning the late St. Louis convention smidst reproaches, gibes and jeers of many of the remaining delegates.

Fourth-That recognizing in Senator Teller the most eminent qualities and fitness for any station in the gift of the people, we present him to the state and nation as a candidate for the presidency to lead the great bimetaille host in the present emergency, because he is the most conspicuous advocate and defender of the fath in the entire republic.

Fifth-That should some advocate and steadfast friend of the free and unamited coinage of silver and gold, at the ratio of is to 1, other than Senator Teller, be nominated for president, we pledge our HEARTY AND UNANIMOUS SUPPORT HEARTY AND UNANIMOUS SUPPORT to that candidate.

Sixth—That should Senator Teller not be nominated for president the people of this state, with a unanimity with scarce a parallel in any constituency, will continue him as a senator of the United States from Colorado.

Seventh—That we therefore confidently appeal to the people of the United States to leave in abeyance for the moment all other questions, however important and even momentous they may seem, to sunder, if need be, all former party ties and affiliations and unite in one supreme effort to free themselves and their children from the domination of the money power—a power more destructive than any which has ever been fastened upon the civilized men of any race or in any age. And upon the consummation of our desires and efforts we invoke the gracious favor of divine providence.

Eighth—That the foregoing is submitted to the end, in the language of the great Lincoln, that "this government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth."

Reeves, solicitor of the treasury, decided today that the five Japanese women recently brought to the United States from Yokohama for purposes of prostitution, could be deported at the expense of the United States.

The women were detained at Port Townsend, Wash, on their arrival there. The general immigration laws prohibit the entry of such women, but make no provision for their deportation. The case was referred to Wushington, by the collector at Port Townsend. Assistant Secretary Hamiln was of the opinion that the women could be deported under the contract labor law, but when the matter was referred to Solicitor Reeves, he refused to dignify prostitutes by classing them as lacorers, but decided that they could be classified as paupers and as paupers sent back at the expense of the United States.

"My Dear Governor-A little late, but none the less hearty, are my congrat-ulations. Your success is the most re-markable in many respects in our history. Everybody seems to be pleased and no one doubts the result." Senator Aldrich of Rhode Island:

"Dear Governor-I congratulate you that you are to have the post of honor and responsible leadership in the great contest for protection and sound money. I believe the victory will be so emphatic that the policy we con-tend for will be accepted without ques-tion for a generation, I know how thoroughly your work will be a labor

Charles R. Dougias, son of the late Charles R. Douglas, son of the late Frederick Douglas, wrote extending his congratulations, with promise of un-tiring support until the close of the polls on the day of election.

STUCK ON HOBART.

Vice Presidential Nominee Hobart will not leave his New Jersey home for Canton until after the formal ratificacanton until after the formal facinea-tion ceremonies on next Monday. Gov-ernor McKinley has always had the warmest admiration for Mr. Hobart, although they have never been intimate acquaintances.

The Sorosis women's reception to the governor's wife, Mother McKinley and his sister, Miss Helen McKinley, at the home of the late Jacob Miller, will exclude all men but Governor McKinley and the newspaper men, who have cards and credentials. There are cards or special invitations to women, but all are invited through the press

The reception is to take place Fri-day afternoon, and is intended to thor-oughly represent the women of Canton and Stark county.

SATURDAY'S JAM. At 5 o'clock this evening the Cleve land and Canton committees for land and Canton committees for the ratification meetings Saturday, decided upon the speakers for the occasion. The programme includes Congressman Taylor, Congressman Grosvenor, President Wolcott of the Tippecanoe club, Cleveland: Hon, James Hoyt, who was the candidate for the Penniblican nomination for governor of Republican nomination for governor of Ohio, and one of the great orators of the west. The committee has also put Governor McKinley on the programme for an address, but it is not thought probable that he will attend the meet-ing, although he may respond to a call at his home later in the evening. Telegrams this afternoon announce that a large delegation from Tuscarawas-county, Ohlo, will come on a special train to Canton July 3; also that the Glass Workers' association and other ions from Massillon will call
